

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Huls Transmission Sdn Bhd (HTSB) is committed to adopt environmentally friendly and sustainable concepts for all projects based on the following principles:

HTSB is a construction company carrying out design, installation, commissioning and maintenance of high voltage overhead power transmission lines, substation, erection, telecommunication towers, fibre optic, cable ducting, cable laying, water reticulation, infrastructure and civil works

- Commitment to protect the environment and prevent pollution according to ISO 14001:2015 Environmental Management System from any significant environmental aspects and impacts arising from our work activities
- Commitment to comply with company's environmental standards and legal obligations and requirements related to the environmental aspects which is relevant to the business
- Commitment to monitor and review the environmental objectives and targets periodically
- Commitment to review and assess Environmental Management Systems periodically to ensure continual improvement
- Commitment to promote awareness and training to all parties involved in the project to encourage going green, enhance environmental performance and preserving environmental qualities

HTSB shall achieve these aims through the operation of a Integrated Management System and continuous improvement of our quality services. Developed in accordance with ISO 14001:2015 Environmental Management Systems requirements

SA'ADIAH MD ZIN
Managing Director

Doc. No: huls/IMS/QESH-02

Effective Date: 3/8/2023 Issue No: 01 Rev. No: 01